

Benefits Advice

When you or your family are affected by a life-threatening illness, you don't want to be worrying about other things. Unfortunately these 'other things' often become your priority. Advice on benefits, housing and other more practical issues, may help. The Benefits Adviser can do an assessment to ensure that you are accessing all the benefits to which you may be entitled.

Employment Issues

The Benefits Adviser offers practical advice, information and representation as needed for issues including benefits, housing, employment, debt and bereavement issues. This can include assistance and advice on funerals and probate.

The Adviser also has contact with local and national charitable institutions and can assist with applications.

- General Advice
- Benefits and Benefits Checks
- Housing Problems
- Debt
- Employment Issues
- Wills / Probate
- Power of Attorney
- Grants
- Carers Problems
- Tax Issues
- General advice: e.g. problems with neighbours and much more.

Please ask for an appointment with the Family Support & Benefits Advisers.

We are here for you

Following referral, appointments are available to patients, carers and close family members. People can either be seen in their own home or at the Hospice. Alternatively, advice can be given over the telephone. The service is designed to be flexible and to accommodate individual client needs.
